Enjoy Bluegrass Music performed by: Bearsville Flatts

Five veterans of the Hudson Valley bluegrass music scene have joined together to form Bearsville Flatts.

Joan Harrison is the lead vocalist and banjo player for the bluegrass/swing band Too Blue.

Jon Ahmadjian picked up the guitar at age 14. He has been living and playing music in the Hudson Valley since 1993.

Bruno Bruzzese plays fiddle & banjo with a love for the early sounds of Bluegrass music. His musical journey has taken him through many styles of music & travels around the USA, Europe, Canada, & Mexico.

Geoffrey Harden plays bass, fiddle, & guitar and has performed and recorded with many acclaimed bluegrass & old time bands who play fast and sing high. He & Sarah Harden host a popular old time music festival & a long running series of string band sessions in Woodstock, NY.

Andy Bing has played resonator guitar & mandolin in many bands up & down the Hudson Valley for nearly 40 years.

Cancellations MUST be received before the final number is submitted. To be eligible for a refund, the treasurer should receive either a call or email indicating the change no later than Wednesday, May 15.

CHAPTER CHATS

Red Hook Retiree Association (RHRA)

Spackenkill Retirees

RHRA individual members donated $595 and 46 food items to Red Hook Responds for the local food pantries prior to the Holiday Season. As a result of the food items donated, the Ascienzo Family Foundation donated $92(46 x 2) to the Red Hook Holiday Gift Card program, the Red Hook FA scholarship fund, & the Red Hook FA food basket program. The foundation ran this food drive benefit the entire month of December, donating a considerable amount of money to these valuable programs.

This charitable foundation was founded by RHRA member Nick Ascienzo upon his retirement from teaching. He is an amazing benefactor as he was a teacher!

Submitted: Sally Sober, (RHRA)

The Spackenkill Retirees met at Coppola’s restaurant on October 5. Cathy Robinson, President of Spackenkill Teachers’ Association, gave an update on topics which affect retirees.

After several years of inactivity, the retiree group is reorganizing. The following officers were elected: Mary Lou Davis – President, Amy Matts- Vice President, Maureen Tremblay- Secretary, and Sue Osterhoudt – Treasurer.

A scholarship was presented last June to a future teacher Adam Macklin.

APRIL Jazz Appreciation Day

Dear Colleagues,

Welcome to Retiree Council #13 Bridges, 2024! I hope you all enjoyed the Holiday season & the joy stays with us throughout the year. We deserve it!

NYSUT is considering a new plan for retiree newsletters. The plan, if implemented, would be to receive 1 newsletter via “snail mail.” The additional 4 newsletters would only be mailed if you opt-in. As more specifics are available, we will update you via the newsletter & our website (www.retireecouncil13.com). It is important that your personal information is current & accurate. Consider creating a NYSUT account by going to NYSUT.org & clicking the “login” icon on the top right & then click on “create an account”. If you have an account, please check that your information is correct.

Your Board of Directors continues to offer support for your needs/ wants as well as our in-service brothers & sisters. We are planning to expand social outings for retirees such as: garden walks, river boat trips, art venues & MEET & EAT Luncheons in each of our 5 counties, to give opportunities to get together on a more “local” level with fellow retirees. Many of these activities are planned for seasonal venues so final plans are not yet in place. Please continue to check our website for updated information on these events, webinars & other offerings. I am sure you will find something to your liking.

I hope you noticed the information, in this issue, for the Spring Luncheon to be held at the Beekman Arms in Rhinebeck. Last year the luncheon reached capacity quickly so sign up now!

The Board also participates in

Committee of 100 lobbying activities, Election District meetings (Retiree and In-Service), and will attend the NYSUT Representative Assembly in May to help us stay informed because we are “Union for Life”. The Board approved 5 Resolutions for the Rep Assembly this year which you can read about in a future issue of NYSUT United.

You are invited to attend Board meetings the 2nd Wednesday of each month. Meeting times are on the website & in this newsletter.

In Solidarity,
Patrick McCarthy
